

TED Talks

For Advocacy-Minded FIMRC Chapters

Global Issues

There's a lot going on in the world, and it's important to be involved! These TED Talks have a variety of subjects to cover.

Global Development

Development covers many different topics, so if you're interested in working in developing countries, give these a listen.

Health Care

Learning about the systems of healthcare is vital when you're working in medicine. See how you can change it to better serve patients!

Health

The way we think about health greatly impacts our health status. Learn about uncommon ways to address common concerns.

TEDMED

This channel exclusively addresses topics in medicine. Hear discussions on unexpected connections that accelerate medical innovations.

Public Health

Public health is a vital component of creating a healthy and productive society. Learn about the complex nature of addressing health with a community approach.

Leadership

Personal and professional development both help to make an impact in the health sector. Expand your mind with different skills and perspectives!

More Recommended Resources at www.fimrc.org/chapter-resources